

The Chainsmokers, Kills You Slowly made plans with me and all your friends I'm late again, I hate to keep you waiting tried to be a gentleman got drunk again before I even made it tried to call a car for you you're tired of me I knew you wouldn't take it you walked a mile in Louis Vuittons and fucked 'em up you know that they're my favorite but we dress up and play pretend then we act like we're good again I do things I can't defend and even when you hold it in

hold it
even though it kills you slowly explosions
hidden we're in the open keep on smiling
until it's over

arguments that never end you're talkin' shit to spice up conversation I'm so sick of back and forth these fights with you are starting to feel contagious said that I'm no good for you right before we walked into your parents then you put on the smile again and grabbed my hand even though you hate it

but, but it to, won't but, I said
but it don't
