

The Chainsmokers, Who Do You Love (ft. 5 Seconds of Summer)

I find cigarettes in your ___ coat even though you don't smoke always changing your access code I can tell you now, I know you've been acting so conspicuous you flip it on me

say, I think too much
you're moving differently when we're making love baby, tell me, tell me

now, now
Who Do You Love now?
now, now
Who Do You Love now?
now, now
Who Do You Love now?
I wanna know
I wanna know who!

you keep switching in alibi or stuttering when you apply you can't look me in the eyes well, I can tell, I know you laying

you've been acting so conspicuous
baby, tell me, tell me

now, now
Who Do You Love now?
now, now
Who Do You Love now?
now, now
Who Do You Love now?
I wanna know
I wanna know who!

baby, tell me, tell me

you ain't gotta make it easy
where you been sleeping this shit is keeping me up at night
just admit it
just admit it

Who Do You Love
Who Do You Love now
I wanna know
I wanna know who
