

The Chalets, Love Punch

At first you were a dream but now you're a nightmare
This kind of shit I have nothing to compare
I'm coming home to a punch or a kiss
You tell me it's your heart but I know it's your fist

I know you love me but you're fucking crazy
I know you love me but you're fucking crazy
I know you love me but you're fucking crazy
I know you love me but you're so fucking crazy

I caught the train but I missed the transfer
You cut me off but I know you don't care
You take me home but someday I'll escape
You say we're making love but I call that a rape

I know you love me but you're fucking crazy
I know you love me but you're fucking crazy
I know you love me but you're fucking crazy
I know you love me but you're so fucking crazy

I know you love me (x3)
But you're fucking crazy!
