

The Connells, Take A Bow

I heard you ring, so you'll be there with bells.
I know you know, this side of things so well.
I'm standing here, and waiting for an answer.
And still in awe...

Somehow I knew it was impossible
and somehow I knew...
And it's taking a long time, I knew it was impossible
and somehow I knew...
Yeah I knew

This time is closer
and somehow, now
It's not what I wanted.

Think for yourself, it makes no sense to me
but I believe.
Hey, hey, in time you'll know, you've know it all along.
To take a bow and leave them with a song.

Somehow I knew it was impossible
And somehow I knew...
Yeah I knew

This time is closer
and somehow, now
It's not what I wanted.

And it's taking a long time
I knew it was impossible
And somehow I knew...
Yeah I knew

This time is closer, and somehow, now
It's closer
And somehow
It's not what I wanted.
