The Connells, Take A Bow

I heard you ring, so you'll be there with bells. I know you know, this side of things so well. I'm standing here, and waiting for an answer. And still in awe...

Somehow I knew it was impossible and somehow I knew...
And it's taking a long time, I knew it was impossible and somehow I knew...
Yeah I knew

This time is closer and somehow, now It's not what I wanted.

Think for yourself, it makes no sense to me but I believe.
Hey, hey, in time you'll know, you've know it all along. To take a bow and leave them with a song.

Somehow I knew it was impossible And somehow I knew... Yeah I knew

This time is closer and somehow, now It's not what I wanted.

And it's taking a long time I knew it was impossible And somehow I knew... Yeah I knew

This time is closer, and somehow, now It's closer And somehow It's not what I wanted.
