

The Coral, A Warning To The Curious

A warning to the curious
A message for the meek
Its better not to be in love
Than to be in between

You, If i never had you
Then i wouldn't feel the way i do now
If i never had you

It was just a joke you said
But now i'm warning you
On whose grounds do you dare to tread?
When all your plans fall through

You, If i never had you
Then i wouldn't feel the way i do now
If i never had you

A warning to the curious
A message for the meek
It's better not to be in love
Than to be in between

You, If i never had you
Then i wouldn't feel the way i do now
If i never had you
If i never had you
If i never had you
If i never had you
If i never had you
If i never had you
If i never had you
If i never had you
