

The Cranberries, Such A Shame

Well I feel so sorry for you
You'll always be the same
'cos you're sad, you're sad
And I think you're very selfish

And you play a vicious game
'cos you're bad, you're bad
And you'll end up very lonely
And you may end up in pain
'cos you're mad, you're mad

I think you're awful
I think you're horrible
A waste of space (x2)

It's your bad behavior
But you never see

Such a shame, such a shame
You'll always be the same
I'm sickened for the mother
Who endured your pain

Such a shame, such a shame
You'll always be the same
I'm sickened for the mother
Who endured your pain

Arrogance, ignorance (x3)

Ooooo

I should think you're very selfish
I should think you're very sad
It's your bad behavior

I should think you're very thankless
For the things you never had
It's your bad behavior

Repeat Chorus
