

The Creatures, Fury Eyes

Punch me Judy, make me cry
You'll disappear, and then I'll die
A love that's lost always returns
To feed the fire of a heart that burns

There's no sleep for fury eyes
So deep are the eyes of fury

Watching faces changing places
Running rings around the moon
Exchanging glances, taking chances
Did we laugh and sing too soon

Our stomachs turn on a fever stream but with no mosquito bite Rabid kisses in a dream still we can't escape the sight

There's no sleep for fury eyes
So deep are the eyes of fury

Tonight they exorcise the ghost of love from its unyielding host
If that don't suit you, scream and shout
If thine offend thee, pluck it out

Alone in love with the other one
The one who doesn't know
And when we dance with the other one
The eyes of fury glow...

Tonight they exorcise the ghost
of love from its unyielding host
If that don't suit you, scream and shout
If thine offend thee, pluck it out

Who'll weep for the fury eyes
Beholding love a thing of beauty
There's no sleep for fury eyes
So deep are the eyes of fury
