

The Cross, In Charge Of My Heart

Well I opened my eyes
Hey what do you say
What a big surprise
Another brand new day
Well I gave you the key
No questions asked
My love surrendered
Goodbye to the past

Coz you are in charge of my heart
You are in charge of my heart
You are in charge of my heart
You are in charge of my heart

Well I gave you the key
To a love divine
You hid it away
Where the sun don't shine

Coz you are in charge of my heart
You are in charge of my heart
Yeah you are in charge of my heart
You are in charge of my heart

Yes you are in charge of my heart
You are in charge of my heart
Yeah you are in charge of my heart
You are in charge of my heart
In charge of my heart
You are in charge of my heart
In charge of my heart

In charge of my heart
