The Cross, In Charge Of My Heart

Well I opened my eyes Hey what do you say What a big surprise Another brand new day Well I gave you the key No questions asked My love surrendered Goodbye to the past

Coz you are in charge of my heart You are in charge of my heart You are in charge of my heart You are in charge of my heart

Well I gave you the key To a love divine You hid it away Where the sun don't shine

Coz you are in charge of my heart You are in charge of my heart Yeah you are in charge of my heart You are in charge of my heart

Yes you are in charge of my heart You are in charge of my heart Yeah you are in charge of my heart You are in charge of my heart In charge of my heart You are in charge of my heart In charge of my heart

In charge of my heart
