

The Crystal Method, Born Too Slow

just like seventies goofballs he's waiting on last calls well listen to method man
'cause if you leave on the last line don't leave on the ground kind born just a little too slow just a little too slow
just a little too
oh, your lives are more than two
just a little too
oh, just a little too
'cause if ya picture the wrong kind you'll know you'll be turnin' blind got outta your head bangin' tail just the wrong way you'll know that a turnin' grey i'm just a little too slow oh, your lives are more than two slow
oh, your lives are more than two
just a little too
your lives are more than two
just a little too
oh, your your life's a born in two
just a little too slow
cause if you leave him callin' you'll know you'll be fallin' lights are bummin' low your shot off and bum and go lives are bummin' low
born just a little too
