The Crystal Method, Born Too Slow

just like seventies goofballs he's waiting on last calls well listen to method man 'cause if you leave on the last line don't leave on the ground kind born just a little too slow just a little too slow just a little too oh, your lives are more than two just a little too oh, just a little too 'cause if ya picture the wrong kind you'll know you'll be turnin' blind got outta your head bangin' tail just the wrong way you'll know that a turnin' grey i'm just a little too slow oh, your lives are more than two slow oh, your lives are more than two just a little too just a little too your lives are more than two just a little too oh, your your life's a born in two just a little too slow cause if you leave on the last line don't leave on the ground kind well listen to method man cause if you leave him callin' you'll know you'll be fallin' lights are bummin' low your shot off and bum and go lives are bummin' low your shot off and bum and go born just a little too