The Cure, Cut Here

"So we meet again!" and I offer my hand All dry and English slow And you look at me and I understand Yeah it's the look I used to know "Three long years... and your favorite man... Is that anyway to say hello?" And you hold me... Like you'll never let me go

"Oh c'mon and have a drink with me Sit down and talk a while..." "Oh I wish I could... and I will! But now I just don't have the time..." And over my shoulder as I walk away I see you give that look goodbye... I still see that look in your eyes...

So dizzy Mr. Busy too much rush to talk to Billy All the silly frilly things have to first get done In a minute - Sometime soon - Maybe next time - Make it June Until laterDoesn't always come

It' so hard to think "It ends sometime And this could be the last I should really hear you sing again And I should really watch you dance" Because it's hard to think "I'll never get another chance to hold you... To hold you..."

But chilly Mr. Dilly- too much rush To talk to Billy All the tizzy fizzy idiot thing's must get done In a second - Just Hang On - All in good time - Won't be long Until later...

I should've stop to think - I should've made the time I could've had that drink - I could've talked a while I would've done it right - I would've moved us on But I didn't - now it's all too late it's over... over... And you're gone...

I miss you so much

But how many times can I walk away And wish "if only..." How many times can I talk this way And wish "if only..."

Keep on making the same mistake Keep on aching the same heartbreak I wish "if only..." But "if only..." Is a wish too late...
