

The Dandy Warhols, Legend Of The Last Of The

i was sick sick so sick time around i use to live down town down in trucker town i was the baddest, baddest, baddest around but there were fifteen years since i heard a sound i said look it, look it, come on down cuz when the boss start shaking, shaking 'em down they're called the last of the outlaw truckers around cuz i'm me, see jacked up on junk and nicotine whoa-oh please believe me i know what i mean by the time we got to texas he was lying 'em down with the bang boom bodies all gone to the ground i said now look it, look it, look what i found i'm on one more mission and that's you, and that's right cuz i'm me, see jacked up on meth and Dexedrine
i know what i mean
and i'm clean
oh, narcotics now
if you've seen what i've seen

then you know what i mean and i said look around, looking out and below you know its hard to take shorty up in new mexico and then i gotta get him down to new orleans i'll go to eight states, in eight states straight shorty you hesitate on a daily base we even got you started down in baton rouge well shorty's kind of trippin' from making him stand so stacks went off to get the gun from his hands pulled another pistol and shot him down that's about the time that sheriff shot shorty down cuz i'm mean, see jacked up on meth-amphetamines and oh-oh, please believe me
i know what i mean
get no buyers now
if you've seen what i've seen oh you know what i mean
