The Decemberists, Angel, Won't You Call Me?

Angel, won't you call me? Could I be the only though I am a lost cause, Angel, won't you call me?

Waiting for a sweet breeze, read it in the tea-leaves Saw them crown you May Queen Heard you sing the sweetest thing

But I been so unbridled I fled at the face of my rival when I felt his breath at the back of my neck Angel, won't you call me?

So here I am in corduroys Catch it in your Polaroid Thought it was an off night, caught in such a warm light

So Angel, won't you call me? Could I be the only though I am a lost cause Angel, won't you call me?

'Cause I been so unbridled I fled at the face of my rival when I felt his breath at the back of my neck Angel, won't you call me?
