

The Decemberists, Hurdles Even Here

So it started in your ovaries
A stone, a seedling
Our bones entwined
A warning from the orderlies
A bulge for bleeding
This will take it's time
So it all ran down the telephone
And saw me clearly
Only nine years old
Calmly cast in styrofoam
In my Tony Lamas
When the shock takes hold
Mom, there are hurdles here
That I cannot seem to clear
Dad, there are demons around
And though I said that I
Said Id be all right, I lied
I lied
I lied
I lied
So fix your brood and belly now
Get your fingers wringing
Get your loins unstained
Itll eat you from the inside out
Until it comes out screaming
Until it all falls away
Dad, there are hurdles here
That I cannot seem to clear
Mom, there are demons around
And though I said that I
Said Id be all right, I lied
I lied
I lied
I lied
