

The Divine Comedy, Tailspin

Huge tailspinis the world gonna win?
Is the nation gonna open up and let us in?
Hard luck! Your policies suck
Your rhetoric will save your face, but not your skin

This timeit's hard to define
So watch the leaves turn brown for the last time
Too late! You've sealed our fate
No returns, no emergency debate... but wait!

I hate unhappy endingsand there doesn't have to be one!

Tailspinyour hair's getting thin

****

****

Your rhetoric will save your face, but not your council estates

Geelife is cheap!
The forests pine and the willows weep
Checkmate! You've sealed our fate
The world is way past its sell-by date

Tailspinis the world gonna win?
Tailspin's on the outside looking in
Tailspin, I repent my sins
But when I get to heaven will you let me in?
Tailspin, save our kin, save our skin...

The message we are sending is a very real one
The world we are defending could be a very green one
We hate unhappy endingsand
THERE DOESN'T HAVE TO BE ONE!
