

The Doors, Someday Soon

Someday soon
Someday soon
Familiar freaks will fill your living room
Rugs lash out there lizard tongues
Your not getting young
Your not getting young

But your going to die
And your going to be needing all of your eyes

You'll be all alone
When the cannibals cry
All by your self
Inside infancy's lie

Someday soon
Someday soon
Television bleeding like a harvest moon
Flush the scissors down the hole
Your getting old
Your getting old

And I hate to remind you but your going to die
And your going to be needing all of your lies

You'll be all alone
When the cannibals cry
All by yourself
Inside infancy's lie

Someday soon
Someday soon
Someday soon
Someday soon
