The Doors, Someday Soon

Someday soon Someday soon Familiar freaks will fill your living room Rugs lash out there lizard tongues Your not getting young Your not getting young

But your going to die And your going to be needing all of your eyes

You'll be all alone When the cannibals cry All by your self Inside infancy's lie

Someday soon Someday soon Television bleeding like a harvest moon Flush the scissors down the hole Your getting old Your getting old

And I hate to remind you but your going to die And your going to be needing all of your lies

You'll be all alone When the cannibals cry All by yourself Inside infancy's lie

Someday soon Someday soon Someday soon Someday soon
