

The Echoing Green, Candy Cane Carriage/Believe

Pink a snow sleigh ride
You are good, you were kind and the magic book defines
To be young and in love is a gift laced in gold
All the years have made me scared
Just give me something to share

Oh what can I do
when you break my heart in two Oh what can I feel
when you break my heart in pieces(2x)

"Better bees than bears" is what you used to say as the pollen filled the air and the June bugs would sing
We made sun-coloured rings
And I'd kiss you in the trees
And you said you'd never leave

Oh what can I do
when you break my heart in two
Oh what can I feel
when you break my heart in pieces(2x)

There was a time when all I did was cry
The fear had gripped my life
And all my dreams passed by

But this time I feel you close to me
And looking I can see
The Christmas in your eyes

And here comes the sun
Shining down on everyone
And I know today is gonna be okay

And here comes the sun
Shining down on everyone
And I know tonight it's gonna be all right

And I can see
The thunder move so far from me today
Nothing's in my way
And I can feel
Your love this time I know it's real
And I realize the Christmas in your eyes

And here comes the sun
And I'll believe for everyone
That love has come and sorrow has an end

And here comes The One
Who gave me strength when I had none
My broken heart is beating once again...
