

The Echoing Green, Enter Love

"Okay, roll the drums!";

Every day I see you turn to Me
With your repentive sighs
It's not the way I called you to be
It's time to see you through My eyes
You'll find you're not so far away
From the man I had in mind
When heart and soul are turned to Me
Consistency you'll find

Love...
The Hand that picks you up each time you fall
Love...
The reason that I answer when you call

Tied around your neck is all your pain
And you're sinking in the sand
Lift your eyes, you'll see the chain
Is breaking in My hand
You'll find you're not so far away
From the grace you hope to find
You give up pain, I give release
Now leave your past behind

Love...
The Hand that picks you up each time you fall
Love...
I'm giving you the answer to it all

Ahhhh...

(Let's go!)

Enter into Me
In your search for your identity
And you'll see
That who you are is what you'll find in Me

Love...
The Hand that picks you up each time you fall
Love...
The reason that I answer when you call
Love...
The Hand that picks you up each time you fall
Love...
I'm giving you the answer to it all
