

The Echoing Green, Hide

All I know
Is I can't make it on my own
I will never last that long
I need a place to hide
Need a place to hide

All at once
Every ounce of hope is gone
There's no one left to call upon
I need a place to run

CHORUS
I will hide myself away
I will hide myself away
I will hide myself away
In Jesus' care

All this time
I've been praying for a sign
Here is one before my eyes
I'll run into Your arms
