

The Echoing Green, Tonight

Underneath the open sky
Beneath the stars we cry
And I can't see your eyes

How I wonder where you are
Sometimes you seem so far
Especially tonight
Tonight
Tonight

Though I know you have to run
How I want you to stay on
And see how far we've come

No, we cannot always wait
To choose the perfect day
To mean the things we say
We say
We say

I can't let you go
Somehow I think you know
But if you have to leave
Now's the time, when I'm still strong
My sight still clear

Tonight (tonight)
Tonight (tonight)
Tonight (tonight)

Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
