

The Exit, Scream And Shout another feeling i can't fight i'm just trying to get the hell out of here tomorrow's just another night the engine's broke and i've run out of steam another night when the silence clings on you i walk alone put a quarter on the track tonight were gonna break on through tell me how to get out of this place scream shout come on baby and let it out abandoned stores and broken homes throwin rocks at broken windows where i'll end up i'll never know feeling stuck feeling dead inside of me and if i do will it be the same tryin hard to get the hell out of here another town without a name tell me how to get out of this place

let it out
