

The Explosion, Out Tonight

We're gonna go
What ya gonna do
We're goin' out tonight

Runnin' through the streets like hooligans
We can see the morning lights
Kickin' down the door
To every corridor
We're gonna clear a path
Better get out of the way
'Cause we're comin' through fast

We have got to fight
To keep this party goin' all night
100 beers in me that is the plan
