

The F-Ups, Screw You

Another time another place said I'll say it to your face
I'll let you know this is my life
I'll let you know that I won't cry I won't even waste my time
I'll just laugh right in your face.

Well now I just say I don't care
And I hope you feel the same way I do
Well now I've got revenge by song and I say

Screw You

You can't treat me like a dog when you know this is your fault
There's nothing wrong with being me
Well this is what you deserve I'll push you down I hope you
Learn in your guilt I wish you well
