

The Faders, Here with me

Three o'clock in the morning
You're still here with me
We left a trail of destruction
But now after sll
I've put you through
I'm starting to see
A world without you
Means nothing to me
Home
I just want to take you home
I don't want to be alone
And I can't believe you're
Standing here with me
Time
It took me a little time
How could I have
Been so blind?
And I can't believe you're
Standing here with me
I was looking for blue skies
Wrapped up in my Own sweet world
But all I found were
The dark clouds
But know that you've
Blown them all away
It's suddenly clear
I still need you to
Kiss away the tears
Home
I just want to take you home
I don't want to be alone
And I can't believe you're
Standing here with me
Time
It took me a little time
How could I have
Been so blind?
And I can't believe you're
Standing here with me
Here with me
Stay here with me
I need you here with me
I need you here with me
Home
I just want to take you home
Time
How could I have
Been so blind?
Three o'clock in the morning
