Loads of wives around the world are given them by doctors, who think they're little girls
The doctors need prescriptions
The wives need their pills
So Rowche Rumble

Menopause wives are hard to handle
No culture or love, no gambles
The (dull) manage, especially smashed on Rowche Rumble
Rowche Rumble

Physician, heal thyself
Why don't you heal yourself?
The promoter is a jerk
The promoter is a jerk

Our government's built on expense accounts
Once in, never out
A step to Rowche
Force feeding
What are the people around you taking?
Rowche Rumble

Physician heal thyself
Why don't you heal yourselves?

Now I've tried crazy things
Abusing my body to a quick end
But I'll never never never never do it again
I said I'll never never never never do it again
Rowche Rumble

Musician, heal thyself.

Loads of people across the land
Do a prescribed death dance
While condemning speed and grass
They got an addiction like a hole in the ass
For Rowche Rumble
Rowche Rumble

Physician heal thyself
Why don't you heal yourselves?
Rowche Rumble

I send 70 pounds instead of 70 p to pharmaceutical company Rowche AG
The lorry arrived the next day
Swiss gnomes dealing out potions
They're gonna kick your liver in
You gotta treat it like a bin
Beer and speed is okay
But the full use of your body isn't

Rowche Rumble
It's valium
