The Finn Brothers, Gentle Hum

This bird has to sing My heart has to follow A man with no soul Is wooden and hollow

This gentle hum Is just begun This gentle hum Make us one

My wish is for you An end to your sorrow And if it comes true You'll wake up tomorrow Alone

With a gentle hum Is just begun This gentle hum Will make us one

There For anyone who cares Solemn faces in the courtroom stare

And this gentle hum Will wake up tomorrow

With a gentle hum This gentle hum

This gentle hum Will make us one This gentle hum Is just begun

This gentle hum, coming up from before Find a loving feeling, inside This gentle hum, bringing it back to me Find a loving feeling, in your life
