

The Fixx, How Much Is Enough

Good enough's not good enough
Don't complain that you've got it tough
With all you have your life's a bore
Can't relax you want so much more
Blind needs won't set you free
Can't you see that
Time is slipping away
But I got to say

CHORUS:

How much is enough? when your soul is empty
How much is enough? in the land of plenty
When you have all you want and you still feel nothing at all
How much is enough, is enough
Gravity may bring you down
But harmony could spin you round
Information ariel
Says buy buy buy material
Give take all day long
Can't you see it's
Hopeless being strong
When you live it wrong?

CHORUS

So give me your attention
I know it's getting late
While we were dreaming
Something slipped away
We're drowning in possessions
Playing tricks with our minds
Lost from one another
Baby put your hand in mine
Time is slipping away
But it's not too late
