

The Flaming Lips, Free Radicals

You think you're so radical
I think you oughta stop (Say what)
But you're going international
They're gonna call the cops
(No, No, No)
You're turning into a poor man's Donald Trump
I know those circumstances make you wanna jump
Oh no

You think you're radical
but you're not so radical
in fact you're fanatical
Fanatical
(X2)

I'll tell you right now
(right now)
You oughta change your mind
(yes)
All of your friends are (uh huh) standing in line
They're getting tired of your attitude fast
You better lose it X2
Without all your bodyguards
How long would you last?
Not long
(not long)

You think you're radical
but you're not so radical
in fact you're fanatical
Fanatical
(X2)
