

The Fray, Together

As the spring in its bloom, the summer stars and the moon,
Come and dance with me my love and we will be one.

We go together,

I promise forever, everyday together,

I live with you.

As the leaves and the trees, the oceans celebrate you and me.

We will live to see many days, and we will dream, we'll dream.

We go together, I promise forever, everyday together, I live with you
