

The Gathering, Bad Movie Scene

Why did I ever think life is about to go on
in a minute
And did I ever see life is about to go on
in a minute
Life never goes on Those are empty words
This is the back door
that will lead you out to find the alley of your dreams
They try and tell you They're just empty words
It's just a frame of mind
Leading me out Sweep you away We'll never go on We're used to these empty words
It's just a frame of mind
