

the Getaway People, Deceived By An Angel

1V: Trust you to stand before me like an angel
All dressed in sweet conceit, though I can't see it I'm running around in circles, still I can't understand But with my third eye open I can see that you treat me like a fool

Ch: With one more lie that I can't take, its my tree that you shake
Shake my soul to the ground and shake me down
I was deceived by an angel

2V: Trust you to want to want me, but do you need me
I pull petals from a flower, do you love me
I've seen you around my garden, you make the flowers bloom
But when spring comes early, summers pass
And autumn comes to soon

Ch: With one more lie that I can't take, its my tree that
you shake
Shake my soul to the ground and shake me down
I was deceived by an angel x 3

M8: Oh baby can't you understand that you're looking at a broken man
If I could pick up the pieces of my broken heart
I would do it all again right from the start
