na na na na na na na na na na
na na na na na na na na na na
na na na na na na na na na na

Saw her in the distance the way you were backing in me all I feel I'm right back there with you again.
I wonder If you're listening it doesn't make you think about the time we ran out naked in the summer rain.

Oh baby..

I'm caught up in the morning blues I can't barely take my mind of you It's just a silly song about love

Now here comes the chorus..

Every summer has its song to remind me of the good times that past if only they could last forever
When they play it on the radio it takes me back to the last time we were dancing somewhere the DJ played it all night long Every summer has its song..

na na na na na na na na na na (yeah, every summer has its song)
na na na na na na na na na na

Something 'bout the ocean when I held you in my arms you swore you never knew a love like this before and watching the horizon we wondered if the sun could ever stay forever smiling on the sophomore.

Oh baby...

And then the brand beat all night long we left until the break of dawn To sing a silly song about love and here comes the chorus...

Every summer has its song
to remind me of the good times that past
if only they could last forever
And when they play it on the radio it takes me back to the last time
we were dancing somewhere
The DJ played it all night long
Every summer has its song...

There's a picture of the past, a memory of you to make the moment last.

na na na na na na na na na na

na na na na na na na na na na

(x2) (Every summer has its song
to remind me of the good times that past
if only they could last forever
when they play it on the radio
it takes me back to the last time
we were dancing somewhere)

Every summer has its song..

Every summer has a song yeah...
