

The Goo Goo Dolls, Love Dolls

I don't wanna lie around here feeling guilty no more
Every time you pushed me you just push me out the door
And I don't wanna stand here, waiting by your side
For you to make up your silly mind, and decide if you're my

Laughing love doll
Boy, you're so proud
Laughing so loud

Every time I look into your sad, pathetic face
I lose my entire faith in the human race
And I don't wanna stand here waiting round no more
For you to walk right out, walk right out, walk right out the door cuz you're my

Laughing love doll
Boy, you're so proud
Laughing so loud
