

The Gothic Archies, Smile! No One Cares How Y

Smile!

No one cares how you feel

Be vicious, vain, and vile

Everything's yours to steal

if you'll just

smile.

Have you no dignity?

Have you no sense of style?

You'll never be pretty

until you

smile.

Smile!

No one cares how you feel

There's a world to beguile

You can make this world kneel

If you'll just

smile.

Always the best disguise

A license to defile

Everyone you despise will die, so

smile.
