The Hold Steady, Yeah Sapphire

Yeah, Sapphire I'm sick and I'm tired and I'm fried And you gotta believe me

Yeah, Sapphire If I cross myself when I come, Would you maybe receive me?

Yeah, Sapphire You were feisty at first, But I broke you and I showed you the temporal

Sacramento, It swung at us first But it ended up going down gentle

Sapphire, if Cheyenne's too small We'll haul it all back to St. Paul I was just about to call you When you called

Yeah, Sapphire I know the last time we touched I came on a bit rough, please forgive me

Yeah, Sapphire After you left, it was a big sketchy mess They almost killed me

Sapphire, if Cheyenne's too small We'll haul it all back to St. Paul I was just about to call you When you called

Sapphire, if St. Paul don't call We've always got Aberdeen 'Cause dreams they seem to cost money But money costs some dreams

It went just as you predicted
I swear there must be something in your dreams
It all went down exactly like your visions
And I know you said don't call until I'm clean

I'm not drunk, I'm cut I'm gushing blood And I need someone to come and pick me up

I was a sceptic at first, but these miracles work I was a sceptic at first, but these miracles work I was a sceptic at first, but these miracles work I was a sceptic at first, but these miracles work
