The Human League, Money

Make your mind up Who's going to think for you? When the time comes You'll have to see it through Use your instinct And take a risk or two Don't you worry 'Cause you'll know what to do You can give so Much to me But I don't want it I will be free For the last time I'm going out the door You don't need me To help you anymore Eyes wide open I see it's different now Keep your comfort I'll get along somehow You can have my money I don't need it anymore I don't need your invitation Down that lonesome corridor Breakdown You can have my money I don't need it anymore I don't need your invitation Down that lonesome corridor Nothing good comes easily Count the cost, I will be free You can scream and disagree I don't want it - I will be free You can have my money I don't need it anymore I don't need your invitation Down that lonesome corridor Nothing good comes easily Count the cost, I will be free You can scream and disagree I don't want it - I will be free
