

The Hush Sound, My Apologies

My apologies dear
For all my mistakes and I'm sure to make more Cause I forget to enjoy the small things in life I just let them slip by forgive yourself cause I took pictures of everything that you've been missing
now I won't feel so bad
forget the past and repeat it all I'll take some pictures for myself
No you won't feel so bad
Why must I stay here
When my friends have left and waved me come with Cause I have lost all of them They're prints in a box when my memory stops
forgive yourself cause I took pictures
of everything that you've been missing
now I won't feel so bad
forget the past and repeat it all
I'll take some pictures for myself
No you won't feel so bad
