

The (International) Noise Conspiracy, I Swear If U rob the innocence, just like small boys playing naked in the rain come on keys to unlock pretty much what you want, my heart and everything a feeble gesture, like writing king mob or black mask on the wall i stay focused but you, you can stay indoors come on yeah, steal the plan, a hundred thoughts focused all in discontent a new heatwave, a total meltdown of your bourgeoisie ways an open invitation of seduction, destruction and all between a new dream, a brand new language full of silent screams i swear we can make it

- come on come on - come right on - i swear, i do - if you do too
- i swear, i do - just about - ??? with you - yeaaaahh
