

The Jesus Lizard, Starlet

The wood was ?? (engraved), oh when I get home

He's stealing my shit, oh

There was that house, why is there blood in my hand (incoherent talking afterwards)

Where, where, where did he go, oh where are you goin'

Where did you go, why is there blood on my clothes, without her clothes

I'd like, I'd like your home, there's blood on my sock

Oh, why do I thank the heaven (think they have him) why do I, why do I
