

The Juliana Theory, P.S. We'll Call You When We

looking back,
alot has changed.
we never thought there'd come a day, when everything we used to live for everything we did
and everything we said could be away!

holding onto dreams.
two small town kids
we're gonna get them.
now it's time,
i see those city lights
i think it's time, time to . . .go!

and we'll come back home,
when we hit the bigtime.
and we'll come back someday.
and we'll come back home,
when we hit the big time.
yeah we'll come back. (x2)
