

The Kelly Family, Lord Can You Hear My Prayer

I'm searching for the gold but i can't find it in this game i found a way to cope and now i'm swimming in the fame i feel it in my bones, i won't be here for long to stay 'cause i'm choking in the coke and now i'm searching who's to blame brother likes to listen well the sister likes a rollin' am i okay

Lord can you hear my prayer, can you hear me now

I see a land of gold and that's where children laugh and play where nurses feed the old while i keep drinking my ros can you see what's my condition have i made my own religion can you hear me pray

Lord can you hear my prayer, can you hear me now
Lord can you hear my prayer, can you hear me now
Lord can you hear my prayer, can you hear me now
Lord can you hear my prayer, can you hear me now
Lord can you hear my prayer, can you hear me now
Lord can you hear my prayer, can you hear me now

thank you for your lovin' thank you for your mercy thank you for forgiving thank you for the ugly thank you for your suffering