

The Kelly Family, Oh it hurts

I look around me
I'm not the only
Hungry for the love
My heart needs to find
But I've learned now
You have to want to
Find yourself inside to carry on
Oh it hurts to love sometimes
Oh it hurts to love someone
Yes it hurts to loose sometimes
Oh it hurts to loose someone
So many hearts are broken
So unnecessarily
And I'm afraid to fail
Again and again
I keep on searching
And I keep on fighting babe
To learn to love myself like a child
Oh it hurts to love sometimes ...
I'm gonna scream this paid on out loud
I'm gonna run I'm gonna free myself and fly
Just like a baby birds first flight
I will fall but I'll pick myself up
And head to the sky
Oh it hurts to love sometimes ...
It's all inside of you
It's all inside of me
It's all inside of everything
You will see
