

The Kelly Family, The children of Kosovo

I believe someone's out there
Who's gonna help me give a nameless child loving care
I believe you are out there
Who's gonna help me give the children tender loving care
Oh oh oh oh oh
So much hate has turned to vengeance
All the laughter has turned to crying
While the mothers lose their children from war to war
I am hungry and I'm cold
And I have no one to hold
For my mother and my father are dead and gone
Where do I belong

ref

This children of Kosovo
Are crying for a helping hand
The children of Kosovo
Are dreaming of a peaceful land
They have beaten my older brother
They have torn away my sister
I'm afraid I want revenge
Is there no other way?
Let's hold our hands tightly together
And think as one forever
You and I can make a change for a better world
No more war!

ref:

This children of Kosovo
Are crying for a helping hand
The children of Kosovo
Are dreaming of a peaceful land
refren 2x