

The Kelly Family, You'll never walk alone

When you walk through the storm,
Hold your head up high
And don't be afraid of the dark.
Happy end of the storm
In his golden sky
And the wert siversong of along.
Walk on, through the wind,
Walk on, through the right
And long, walk on,
Walk on with hope in your heart
And you'll never walk alone,
You'll never walk alone.
