

The Kid LAROI, WHERE DOES YOUR SPIRIT GO

Fade away in the dark
And you're never comin' back
No comin' back
And I saw the look on your face
When it changed
And you weren't lookin' back
No comin' back
Lonely day but tomorrow I'll feel it
Truth is worse everytime that i hear it
Know you're gone but tell me
Where did your spirit go? (Woah-oh)
Run away from the way that I'm feeling
Maybe that's just the way that I'm healing
Know you're gone but tell me
Where did your spirit go?
I just don't get it
All the things I wish I would've said
Before you took your last breath
How'd you build me up just to leave me now?
(Woah-oh)
Oh, I just don't know where to go
Tell me where we go? (Woah, oh-oh)
No, I just don't know
Call you whenever I'm drunk
Then I remember you're gone
Wish I could hear what you said
Hope that I'm all that you saw
I'm takin' all that you taught
Blood comin' up when you cough
Coldest december I saw
Tryna hold onto your soul
Fuck all the letting you go
I'll never let you go
Lonely day but tomorrow I'll feel it
Truth is worse everytime that i hear it
Know you're gone but tell me
Where did your spirit go? (Woah-oh)
Run away from the way that I'm feeling
Maybe that's just the way that I'm healing
Know you're gone but tell me
Where did your spirit go?
I just don't get it
All the things I wish I would've said
Before you took your last breath
How'd you build me up just to leave me now?
(Woah-oh)
Oh, I just don't know where to go
Tell me where we go? (Woah, oh-oh)
No, I just don't know
