

The Killers, Waiting For Love

Do do do do, do do do do, do do
Sha la la la, la la la la la, la la

If it was up to me
Well I'd lash out, freak out, scene on me
I'd lose my sympathy
If it was up to me

I'm calling you away
And I promise you I'll be okay
With everything that I've got
I can explain to you some way

That I've been waiting for love
Waiting for love
And I told you it'd be worth it
Waiting for love

I've gotta make it slow
And yes, I need
And yes, you go
But I don't wanna know
I gotta make it slow

You kissed me once for good luck
And you told me it's true
Uh oh oh oh, uh oh no
Gotta tell you it's luck
But I've never been down
And I'm never gonna waste my time
My time

Last night I saw you talk
You asked me for a talk
And I was never there
But I could never see
If you would only be anywhere

And I told you how to work it

Waiting for love
Waiting for love
And I told you it'd be worth it

Waiting for love

Waiting for love
Oh, I've been waiting for love
And I told you it'd be worth it
Waiting for love
You said that I am perfect
Ohh

Waiting for love
