

The Kinks, A Long Way From Home

You've come a long way from the runny-nosed and scruffy kid I knew
You had such good ways
I can remember the little things that always made you smile
They made you happy
Now you think you're wiser because you're older and you think
That money buys everything
And you think that you need no one to guide you But you're still a long way from home.
You've come a long way, you're self-assured and dressed in funny clothes but you don't know me.
I hope you find what you are looking for with your car and your handmade overcoats But your wealth will never make you stronger
'cos you're still a long way from home
Yea, you're still a long way from home
